DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because it appears the reference number (501) in Fig. 3 should read (581). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 10 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. According to page 17, lines 14 -18, of the specifications, air escapes around the conduit 200 and then is sealed. It appears the coupling of the conduit 200 and the housing 400 needs to be sealed before the housing is attached to the syringe and is not clear how air could escape around the conduit while water is kept from escaping.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-7, 9, 11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,250,887 to Dardik et al.

Dardik shows a pumping system as seen in Fig. 2, having a source of fluid 35, a mechanism for applying pressure 22a, a flexible conduit 33 connected to and pressurizing a container 25, a handle 30, a trigger 31, connecting means 29 and a plunger 38.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 8, 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 4,250,887 to Dardik et al. in view of US 5,015,233 to McGough et al.

Dardik shows all claimed features as discussed above except for valves mounted in the housing for controlling the movement of fluid and a manual pressure release mechanism. McGough shows a dispensing device as seen in Figs. 1 and 2, having a valve mechanism 44 and 60 for controlling movement of fluid and a manual pressure release mechanism 32. It would have been obvious to a person with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of Dardik to include fluid controlling valves and a pressure release mechanism to permit a gradual increase of pressure and realize a mechanical advantage on the dispensed fluid and release the pressure to stop dispensing the fluid as taught by Gough, see column 3, lines 7-53.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Collar shows a material dispenser. Cassou shows an artificial insemination apparatus. Peeler shows a hydraulically dispenser.
